ELBERON MEMORIAL PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH
(THE MOSES TAYLOR MEMORIAL)
PARK AVENUE, ELBERON, NEW JERSEY

SUMMER MINISTERS:
THE REVEREND NORMAN VINCENT PEALE, D.D.
THE REVEREND GEORGE Y. FLINT
SERVICES AT 11 A.M. AND 4 P.M.

The Elberon Memorial Presbyterian Church

The Church was built fifty-five years ago by Mrs. Moses Taylor in memory of her husband. It was erected to serve as a summer sanctuary of worship.

The Church in general has followed the plan of having one minister to serve for the entire summer period. The congregation has been singularly fortunate in the distinguished ministers who have served. They have been, in order:

Charles F. Young	*Cleland B. McAfee
*Donald S. Mackaye	S. Parkes Cadman
*J. Ross Stevenson	G. Johnstone Ross
Hugh Black	*Charles E. Wishart
*David J. Burrell	*J M. Vander Meulen
*John D. Carson	Norman V. Peale

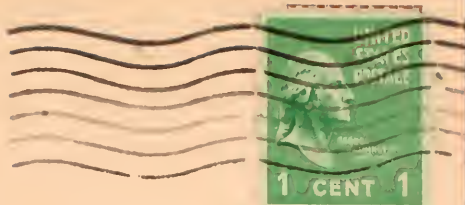

* Denotes Moderators of their denomination.

The Church is famous for the high order of its musical program. Some of the most distinguished singers from New York City Churches and leading singers from other cities have constituted this choir, under the able direction of Robert Gayler.

The choir includes: Josephine Neri, Soprano; Saida Knox, Contralto; Lucius Metz, Tenor; William Sutherland, Baritone, and also Mildred Lind, Violiniste; and Elsa Moegle, Harpist. Robert Gayler, Organist and Director.

All are invited to worship in this beautiful and historic Church by the sea.

*Attended this morning. Having fine time
Betty*
